

Foundation for Community Association Research

information that matters

The Foundation for Community Association Research sponsors needs-driven research that informs and enlightens all association stakeholders—residents, homeowner volunteer leaders, community managers and other professional service providers, legislators, regulators and the media.

Our research initiatives:

- Build a database of knowledge that strengthens decision making
- Identify and define critical community association trends
- Facilitate greater understanding of the community association experience
- Guide the volunteers and professionals who govern and manage associations

The foundation supports the continued success of common-interest communities by identifying challenges that can be addressed with reliable and actionable research.

Visit www.cairf.org to learn more and find out how you can help support common-interest communities and the people who work to make them preferred places to call home.

Our research is made possible by your tax-deductible contributions. We thank you for your support.
